DONATIONS OF LIFE-SAVING BLOOD

Since 2008 the Stanford Bloodmobile has come to Nativity four times a year so that our parishioners could conveniently donate blood on Sunday mornings after Mass. Unfortunately, for several reasons, they are no longer able to bring the bloodmobile here. The good news is that Stanford has a Blood Center at 445 Burgess Drive, Suite #100, in Menlo Park, just a few blocks from Nativity. The Blood Center is open from 12:00-07:30 PM on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday and from 07:30 AM-03:00 PM on Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday.

You may make an appointment by calling 888/723-7831, emailing giveblood@med.stanford.edu or visiting <http://bloodcenter.stanford.edu/bcinfo/maps-mp.html>. If you have given blood at the bloodmobile in the past or if you have never given blood, please consider making a donation of lifesaving blood at the Blood Center in Menlo Park. We would like to especially thank the Trucios and Thomas families for all their diligent work in organizing the blood drives that we were able to have at Nativity.

Universal: Human Trafficking

That human trafficking, the modern form of slavery, may be eradicated.

Missionary: Asian Missionaries

That with a missionary spirit the Christian communities of Asia may announce the Gospel to those who are still awaiting it.

ANNULMENT REFORM: 6 MIS-CONCEPTIONS

(excerpted from a National Catholic Register article by Canon lawyer Benedict Nguyen)

Pope Francis' recent documents issued motu proprio (on his own initiative) call for a close reading in order to understand the developments of the canonical procedural laws concerning the declaration-of-marriage-nullity process.

Unfortunately, the sensationalism that has surrounded them has caused some misconceptions and misreporting that, in turn, can cause difficulty in understanding some of the reforms. While there is still much to be digested, I would like to highlight six misconceptions ... in these landmark reforms.

Misconceptions

1. Let us first take the biggest misconception that is being reported, namely the one regarding the Church's teachings on marriage. The Catholic doctrine on marriage and indissolubility has not and will not change. It must be said clearly and repeatedly that Pope Francis' reforms are procedural changes and not changes in Church teachings nor even changes in substantive canonical law or jurisprudence for marriage cases. Claims that these are changes in the Church's beliefs on marriage are simply mistaken.

2. The purpose of these reforms is not to make it easier to obtain a declaration of nullity, in the sense of laxity. The purpose is to make the investigative process more efficient and accessible. Whether we agree with them or not, these changes are what the Pope and the commission that studied this issue saw as areas where the process was either being denied or delayed unnecessarily.

3. There are no new grounds for declaring a marriage null. This is a major misperception. The grounds for determining whether or not a marriage was entered into validly remain the same. Every case must continue to be determined in light of — and only in light of — the established canonical grounds. The Pope has not established new grounds, nor can bishops, tribunals or judges read new grounds into these procedural reforms.

Particularly concerning Article 14 of Mitis Iudex, Dominus Iesus, Pope Francis is not here establishing new grounds for marriage nullity. A careful reading of Article 14 shows that these are situations where it is possible for a party to request the new, shorter process, by which a case can be referred to the diocesan bishop for determination. These situations can include situations of lack of faith, brevity of married life, procured abortion, persistence in extramarital affairs, malicious concealment of serious past matters, unplanned pregnancy, physical violence and medically-proven lack of the use of reason. These are situations allowing for the request of a certain procedure. It would simply be an error to see these as new grounds.

ALL ABOUT ANGELS

This week we will celebrate the “angelic” feast day of the archangels: Saints Michael, Gabriel and Raphael, and the feast of our guardian angels.

WHAT ARE THE “CHOIRS OF ANGELS”?

A number of works throughout history, from Dionysius the Areopagite (often referred to in English translations as St. Denis) to St. Thomas Aquinas (“Summa Theologica”) have attempted to classify the angels into a hierarchical set (Dionysius even invented the word “hierarchia”, meaning “sacred order”). The commonly-accepted organization for the angelic hosts is three ranks, with three orders in each rank (the higher the rank, the closer to God).

The highest rank contains:
SERAPHIM
CHERUBIM
THRONES

The “middle” rank contains
DOMINATIONS (DOMINIONS)
VIRTUES (AUTHORITIES)
POWERS

The lowest rank contains:
PRINCIPALITIES
ARCHANGELS
ANGELS

STREET LIFE MINISTRIES

Street Life Ministries is a community-based non-profit that serves the homeless and at-risk population of Menlo Park and Redwood City. We build environments and relationships where community volunteers can provide food, clothing, housing referral, addiction recovery, and other personal support. For over ten years, Street Life volunteers have met on the streets for people on the streets. Street Life Ministries is operated by passionate people of different Christian traditions who share a common desire to see the message of Jesus lived out in tangible ways. We meet together on the street and believe in helping those in need with the Word of God and a plate of hot food. We need volunteers who are willing to serve, cook meals, or drive our van to deliver to street locations. Our ministry is on Monday and Wednesday in Redwood City, and Tuesday and Thursday at the Menlo Park Train Station from 07:30-09:00 PM each night. Please visit our website, www.streetlifeministries.org, to get descriptions of the services needed, or if you want to contact our volunteer leaders directly please email them:

SO WHAT IS AN ANGEL?

“Angel” is not what they are -- it is what they do. “Spirit” is what these beings “are”. “Angel” is the title of their office -- it means they are messengers of God. Saint Thomas Aquinas called them “thoughts that can think”. Here is what the Catechism of the Catholic Church says:

I. THE ANGELS

The existence of angels - a truth of faith

328 The existence of the spiritual, non-corporeal beings that Sacred Scripture usually calls “angels” is a truth of faith. The witness of Scripture is as clear as the unanimity of Tradition.

Who are they?

329 St. Augustine says: “‘Angel’ is the name of their office, not of their nature. If you seek the name of their nature, it is ‘spirit’; if you seek the name of their office, it is ‘angel’: from what they are, ‘spirit’, from what they do, ‘angel.’” With their whole beings the angels are servants and messengers of God. Because they “always behold the face of my Father who is in heaven” they are the “mighty ones who do his word, hearkening to the voice of his word”.

330 As purely spiritual creatures angels have intelligence and will: they are personal and immortal creatures, surpassing in perfection all visible creatures, as the splendor of their glory bears witness.

HOW DO I KNOW I HAVE A GUARDIAN ANGEL?

The Old Testament tells us so, in Psalm 91 (and again in Matthew, when Satan quotes Psalm 91 to Jesus):

“For He will give His angels charge of you to guard you in all your ways. On their hands they will bear you up, lest you dash your foot against a stone.”

WANT TO READ MORE ABOUT ANGELS?

The book Angels of God by Mike Aquilina is an excellent resource that discusses all the places in the Bible where angels are mentioned (there are quite a few!). You can order it from www.ewtnreligiouscatalog.com.
