SAINTS AND OBSERVANCES

SOLEMNITY, FEAST, MEMORIAL • OPTIONAL MEMORIAL • OTHER

21 APR (Thursday): SAINT CONRAD OF PARZHAM, Religious (1818-1894)

Conrad spent most of his life as porter in Altoetting, Bavaria, letting people into the Capuchin friary and indirectly encouraging them to let God into their lives. He was a lover of solitary prayer, and a peacemaker.

SAINT ANSELM OF CANTERBURY, Priest (1033-1109)

The Archbishop of Canterbury, Anselm was a counsellor to Pope Gregory VII, Pope Urban II and William the Conqueror.

23 APR (Saturday): SAINT GEORGE, Martyr (d. ~304)

The only facts we know are that George was a soldier and martyr (tortured and beheaded in Palestine). Several stories have been attached to him, including the famous tale of his defeat of the dragon in a lake near Silena, Libya.

SAINT ADALBERT OF PRAGUE, Bishop and Martyr (~957-997)

Member of the Bohemian nobility who became Bishop of Prague and friend of Emperor Otto III. He founded the monastery of Brevnov, and tried (unsuccessfully) to evangelize in Pomerania, where he and his fellow missionaries were martyred.

SAVE THE DATE: 04 JUN 2016

Carol Trelut, the Principal of Nativity School, is going to retire at the end of the school year. She began her time at Nativity in 1996 teaching 6th grade homeroom as well as Social Studies to grades six through eight. In 2000, she added the responsibilities of being student council moderator, mentor teacher, and vice principal. In 2001, she became the Principal of Nativity School. She has guided many students, parents, teachers, faculty, and staff with grace, firmness, and humility. We will be having a special dinner in her honor on Saturday, 04 JUN 2016 at 06:30 PM in the Sobrato Pavilion. This is an adult-only celebration. Children will have their own special celebration for Mrs. Trelut at a separate time. We will be asking for RSVP's at the end of April, but please mark your calendar now. If you have any questions, please email Susie Foster at sfoster@nativityschool.com.

*Dear Monsignor Otellini,
Thank you very much for the generous World Mission Sunday 2015 contribution of $7968.80 from the people of the Church of the Nativity. I am most grateful to you for encouraging the missionary spirit of prayer and sacrifice among your parishioners. Know that you and they remain in my prayers and in the prayers of the people of the Missions.*

*Sincerely,
Genevieve Elizondo,
Archdiocesan Mission Director*

SPECIAL COLLECTION

Next weekend there will be a special collection for the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Home mission dioceses are located all across the United States, including the Deep South, Appalachia, the Rocky Mountains, and even in Northern California. These dioceses lack the resources to provide their faithful with basic pastoral care, including the sacraments, religious education, and ministry training. Home mission dioceses often struggle with priest shortages, parishioner poverty, unemployment, difficult and isolated terrain, religious hostility and other circumstances that make it difficult to practice the faith. The Catholic Home Missions Appeal strengthens the Church in the United States by providing yearly grants to support programs in home mission dioceses, which make up over 40% of all US dioceses. Please strengthen the Church at home by making a generous gift to next week's appeal.

MOTHERS' DAY CARDS

Mother's Day is 08 MAY 2016! What could be a better gift to your mother, wife, mother-in-law, grandmother, godmother, sister, sister-in-law, aunt, daughter, or friend then to be remembered in a novena of Masses in observance of Mother's Day at the Church of the Nativity? Mother's Day Cards are available at the entrances to the church. Put the name(s) of your loved ones who are mothers, living or deceased, on the larger envelope and return it to the parish office or put it into the collection. Send the card to your favorite mother. These names will be placed on the altar during May so that they will be remembered in a novena of Masses that will be said in their honor.

RELICS OF SAINT PIO AND SAINT LEOPOLD

First-degree relics of St. Padre Pio and St. Leopold will be displayed throughout California during the Jubilee Year of Mercy. Pope Francis has chosen these two Capuchin saints as patrons of God's merciful call to reconciliation and grace. These relics will be at that National Shrine of St. Francis of Assisi in San Francisco during the months of May, September and November. The National Shrine of St. Francis of Assisi is located at 610 Vallejo Street, San Francisco. For more information www.shrineSF.org, info@shrinesf.org, or 415/986-4557.

SAVE THE DATE FOR THE ANNUAL NATIVITY SCHOOL AUCTION

So what is the “ichthys symbol” (ICK-thoos)? It was a sign used by early Christians (1st and 2nd centuries A.D.) to identify one another as fellow believers in Jesus. In the early days of the Church, Christians had to practice their faith in secret: to openly be a follower of Jesus meant persecution and probably a martyr’s death. So Christians had to meet secretly in each other’s homes to pray, teach, and learn more about Our Lord. You might find this symbol drawn in the dirt or carved near a door, and if you were a Christian, you would know that another Christian lived there. When two travelers met on the road, one might draw half of the symbol (just one of the arches). If the other traveler completed the symbol by drawing the other arch, both would know they were in the company of a believer.

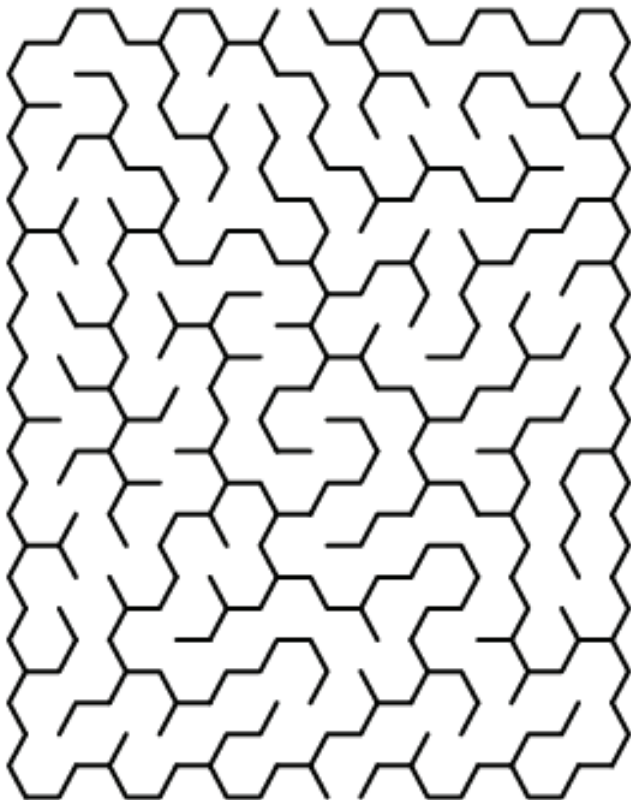

The letters are Greek (which was the common language in those days) and spell the word “fish”. But Christians used each of the letters to stand for “Iesous Christos, Theou Uios, Soter”, which means “Jesus Christ, Son of God, Savior.”

In another form of the symbol, the five letters were drawn on top of each other, and the result looks like a 6-spoked wheel.

You can see many examples of the “wheel” symbol around the ruins of Ephesus in Turkey.
