SAINTS AND OBSERVANCES

SOLEMNITY, FEAST, MEMORIAL • OPTIONAL MEMORIAL • OTHER

03 MAR (Thursday):

SAINT KATHARINE DREXEL (1858-1955)

Born in 1858 into a prominent Philadelphia family, Katharine became imbued with love for God and neighbor. She took an avid interest in the material and spiritual well-being of black and native Americans. From the age of 33 until her death in 1955, she dedicated her life and a fortune of 20 million dollars to this work. In 1894, Mother Drexel took part in opening the first mission school for Indians, in Santa Fe, New Mexico. In 1915 she also founded Xavier University in New Orleans. At her death there were more than 500 Sisters teaching in 63 schools throughout the country.

04 MAR (Friday):

SAINT CASIMIR OF POLAND (1458-1484)

Casimir was a 15th-century Polish prince, third in line for the throne. He lived a highly disciplined, often severe, life: sleeping on the ground, spending a great part of each night in prayer, and dedicating himself to lifelong celibacy (even under pressure to marry the daughter of the emperor). He had a great devotion to Mary, supported the poor, and lived a virtuous life amid the dis-solute court.

SEMINARS: CATHOLIC ESTATES AND END-OF-LIFE PLANNING

When it comes to end-of-life bioethical decisions and estate, funeral and burial planning, many people do not know where to begin. Because of this, a great number of people die without having had the opportunity to make funeral and estate plans. And when it comes to making ethical decisions about medical care, many people just don't know where to receive good advice. The Archdiocese of San Francisco and Catholic Cemeteries are offering a seminar on these topics. Please note that there will be no sales pitch; the goal is to provide up-to-date information that will be of help to families in planning for the future. All parishioners are welcome, and refreshments will be served. The seminar is free, but pre-registration through the Office of Development is requested at development@sfarch.org or 415/614-5580.

FROM THE HOLY SEE

THE HOLY FATHER'S PRAYER INTENTIONS

Each month His Holiness asks for general and missionary prayer intentions. For March 2016, the Holy Father's prayer intentions are:

Universal: Families in Difficulty

That families in need may receive the necessary support and that children may grow up in healthy and peaceful environments.

Missionary: Persecuted Christians

That those Christians who, on account of their faith, are discriminated against or are being persecuted, may remain strong and faithful to the Gospel, thanks to the incessant prayer of the Church.

EXCERPTS FROM THE POPE'S MESSAGE FOR LENT 2016

1. Mary, the image of a Church which evangelizes because she is evangelized

In the Bull of Indiction of the Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy, I asked that "the season of Lent in this Jubilee Year be lived more intensely as a privileged moment to celebrate and experience God's mercy" (Misericordiae Vultus, 17). By calling for an attentive listening to the word of God and encouraging the initiative "24 Hours for the Lord", I sought to stress the primacy of prayerful listening to God's word, especially his prophetic word. The mercy of God is a proclamation made to the world, a proclamation which each Christian is called to experience at first hand. For this reason, during the season of Lent I will send out Missionaries of Mercy as a concrete sign to everyone of God's closeness and forgiveness.

2. God's covenant with humanity: a history of mercy

The mystery of divine mercy is revealed in the history of the covenant between God and his people Israel. God shows himself ever rich in mercy, ever ready to treat his people with deep tenderness and compassion, especially at those tragic moments when infidelity ruptures the bond of the covenant, which then needs to be ratified more firmly in justice and truth. Here is a true love story, in which God plays the role of the betrayed father and husband, while Israel plays the unfaithful child and bride. These domestic images – as in the case of Hosea (cf. Hos 1-2) – show to what extent God wishes to bind himself to his people.

This love story culminates in the incarnation of God's Son. In Christ, the Father pours forth his boundless mercy even to making him "mercy incarnate".

3. The works of mercy

God's mercy transforms human hearts; it enables us, through the experience of a faithful love, to become merciful in turn. In an ever new miracle, divine mercy shines forth in our lives, inspiring each of us to love our neighbour and to devote ourselves to what the Church's tradition calls the spiritual and corporal works of mercy. These works remind us that faith finds expression in

Let us not waste this season of Lent, so favourable a time for conversion! We ask this through the maternal intercession of the Virgin Mary, who, encountering the greatness of God's mercy freely bestowed upon her, was the first to acknowledge her lowliness (cf. Lk 1:48) and to call herself the Lord's humble servant (cf. Lk 1:38).

RENOUNCE SIN AND TEMPTATION

The Lenten season is a particularly good time to reflect on our fallen nature, and to prepare ourselves as fully as we can for the salvation Jesus bought for us with His Blood on the cross.

How well do you understand what the Church has taught for generations about "sin"?

How thoroughly do you prepare yourself for the sacrament of Confession (do you take advantage of this wonderful, reconciling sacrament regularly)?

The 1962 version of "My Sunday Missal" contains some valuable information on these topics. We are reprinting key sections from the back of that missal here for your personal reflection.

PREPARATION FOR CONFESSION

Examination of Conscience:

My Duties to God

Neglecting morning or evening prayers • superstitious practices • consulting fortune tellers • receiving sacraments sacrilegiously • against Faith by willful doubts concerning any article of the Creed or by reading or circulating irreligious books • against Hope by despair, murmuring or presuming on God's Mercy • against Charity by wilfully rebellious thoughts against God or His Law or by omitting good works through fear of others • irreverence towards God, His Name, His Church • cursing or swearing • false, unlawful or unnecessary oaths • breaking lawful vows • neglecting Mass on Sundays or Holy Days, or performing unrequired servile work.

My Duties to My Neighbor

Insulting or neglecting parents • failing to send children to religious schools when possible • bad example • neglect of home, trade, professional or civil service duties • ignoring the spiritual and corporal works of mercy • any violent act • causing hard feeling • revenge • refusing reconciliation • inducing others to sin • stealing • possession of ill-gotten goods • cheating • culpable delay in paying lawful debts • lying • perjury • fraud • slander • failure to support my Church.

My Duties to Myself

Obstinacy • sloth • desiring or yielding to sensuality, impurity, gluttony, drunkenness • rage, envy, impatience, jealousy • failure to fast or abstain • failure to make my Easter Duty • waste of time, money, or talents.
