OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE (1531)

The Blessed Virgin appeared to Juan Diego in 1531 calling herself the Mother of the True God and promising compassion and protection to all who come to her. She left an image of herself on his cloak, which is still preserved at the shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico City. Under this title, Mary has been declared Patroness of the Americas.

14 DEC (Thursday):

SAINT JOHN OF THE CROSS

A Doctor of the Church, he was persuaded by Saint Teresa of Avila to begin the Discalced or barefoot reform within the Carmelite Order. John became the Master of novices, spiritual director and confessor at Saint Teresa's convent. His reforms revitalized the order. John was a great mystical and spiritual writer.

DID YOU KNOW?

In one version of this devotion, the novena prayer is recited 15 times each day, starting on the Feast of Saint Andrew (30 NOV) and continuing every day throughout DEC.

13 DEC (Wednesday)

SAINT LUCY, Martyr (~283 - ~304)

St. Lucy was a young Christian of Greek ancestry, living in Syracuse in the early fourth century. Like many early Christian women, she devoted herself completely to Jesus. But her mother betrothed her to a pagan, and Lucy was only able to change her mother's mind after praying at the tomb of St. Agatha to cure her mother's illness. However, the spurned pagan suitor denounced her as a Christian, and she was martyred.

CHRISTMAS NOVENA

This is a traditional novena of the season, and is quite old. It should begin on 16 DEC, ending on Christmas Eve. The repeated daily prayer is:

Hail, and blessed be the hour and moment in which the Son of God was born of the most pure Virgin Mary, at midnight in Bethlehem in the piercing cold. At that hour vouchsafe, I beseech Thee, O my God, to hear my prayers and grant my desires. (mention request here) Through the merits of our Savior, Jesus Christ, and of His Blessed Mother. Amen.

There is a daily reflection to accompany each of the nine days of the novena. The reflections can be found at

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS HELPS IRAQI CHRISTIAN FAMILIES GET HOME

The Knights of Columbus, together with the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and other Catholic organizations, are working in support of persecuted Christians in the Middle East, primarily in Iraq and Syria. With the defeat of ISIS in Iraq, Christians are theoretically free to return home—but most lack the resources to do so. The Knights have pledged $2 million to move hundreds of refugee families back to their homes in Karamles, on the Nineveh Plain, the traditional Christian homeland of Iraq. The cost is about $2,000 per family—and many more families need this help. The Knights ask Catholics to join them in this effort, with donations and with prayers. Complete information is on the website www.ChristiansAtRisk.org

FESTIVAL OF LIGHTS: SANTA LUCIA

In Sweden the 13th of December is not a national holiday, but it is a day of special celebrations. It is the feast day of Saint Lucy (Santa Lucia) and many traditions are celebrated in Swedish and other Scandinavian homes. In the historical tradition, the eldest daughter brings coffee and St. Lucia buns to her parents, while wearing a crown of candles and singing a Lucia song. Other daughters may help, dressed in the same type of white robe with red sash, and holding a candle in one hand (but only the oldest daughter wears the candle-wreath).

In modern tradition, public processions are held in Swedish cities, with national and regional “Lucias” selected. The regional Lucias will visit shopping malls, elder homes, and churches, singing and handing out ginger snaps. Boys also join in the processions, dressed as “star boys” in white robes and tall cone-shaped hats covered in golden stars, as “tomtenissar” (Santa’s helpers), or as gingerbread men.

Before the conversion to the Gregorian calendar, the feast day of St. Lucy fell very close to the winter solstice, a time of very long, very dark nights in Scandinavia. St. Lucia’s Day was a festival of lights to dispel the darkness, and candles are a prominent part of all the celebrations. Though it is not an official part of the Advent celebrations, many Swedes consider this day to mark the beginning of the Christmas season.

SIMBANG GABI FOR DEANERY 11

What is Simbang Gabi (meaning “Masses at Night”)? It is a long-treasured Filipino spiritual tradition. In the Philippines, it is celebrated as a series of nine dawn Masses right before Christmas, each Mass followed by a reception and fellowship. Beginning on December 15th and ending on December 23rd, these daily novena Masses are now also celebrated in the evening. Set within Advent, Simbang Gabi invites participants to heighten their preparation for the birth of Jesus, as well as honor the Blessed Virgin Mary. The most popular symbol for Simbang Gabi is the parol, or star lantern, with represents the star of Bethlehem. A parol is usually brought up during the processional to remind us of the guiding light that led many to the manger. Through Simbang Gabi, the deanery hopes to offer a deeper spiritual experience leading to a more meaningful Christmas season for all. This celebration of faith also hopes to strengthen the bonds between cultures and between parishes, thereby strengthening fellowship and family life in our community and deanery.

The following Churches in Deanery 11 will be having Masses for Simbang Gabi:

15 DEC (FRI)	07:00 PM St. Pius, Redwood City
16 DEC (SAT)	05:00 PM Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Redwood City
17 DEC (SUN)	05:00 PM St. Charles, San Carlos

SINULOG FESTIVAL

The Filipino Ministry Consultative Board of the Archdiocese of San Francisco invites you to its 2nd Annual Sinulog Festival, a Filipino devotion honoring the Holy Child Jesus (Santo Niño). It will be Saturday, 13 JAN 2018 at 11:00 AM at the Cathedral of St. Mary of the Assumption, 111 Gough Street, San Francisco. There will be a reception immediately after the Mass.
