SAINTS AND OBSERVANCES

SOLEMNITY, FEAST, MEMORIAL • OPTIONAL MEMORIAL • OTHER

07 MAR (Tuesday):

SAINT PERPETUA and SAINT FELICITY, Martyrs (d. 203)

Perpetua was a noble woman of Carthage, and Felicity was her slave. While still catechumens they were arrested during the persecution of Christians under Emperor Septimus Severus and imprisoned in a private home where they were baptized. They were sentenced to death in a public amphitheater. When wild beasts failed to kill them, the women were killed by the sword.

08 MAR (Wednesday):

SAINT JOHN OF GOD (1495-1550)

Spanish soldier who converted from a dissolute life to give solace to the sick and homeless, for which he was much criticized. While rescuing patients from a burning hospital, he fell through the burning roof but emerged unscathed. He is known as the patron of firefighters. The Brothers Hospitallers (now a worldwide religious organization) were founded by his followers 20 years after John's death.

09 MAR (Thursday):

SAINT FRANCES OF ROME (1384-1440)

An aristocrat by birth, she became a Benedictine and Foundress of the Oblates of the Tor de' Specchi (Collatines). She spent her life and fortune, both as a laywoman and religious, in the service of the sick and poor. She is said to have been guided by an archangel that only she could see.

On her feast day, priests bless cars due to her patronage of cars and drivers. Though Frances certainly never drove, legend says that when she went abroad at night, her guardian angel went before her lighting the road with a headlight-like lantern, keeping her safe in her travels.

We will have Stations of the Cross every Friday during Lent, following the 05:30 PM Mass

SPECIAL COLLECTION: NATIVITY FEEDS ~THE VOICE

"You have not lived today until you have done something for someone who can never repay you." Mother Teresa emphasizes the Gospel focus on giving and she reminds us to "Give, but give until it hurts". Using their voices to help others, Alexander and Luke Edward Harding Bradley, Nativity's young cantors, supported by the parishioners of Nativity Parish, set up a feeding program in Tanzania in 2015 called Nativity Feeds. The region where the feeding program is based has one of the highest levels of poverty in the world. Our work brings beans and corn to 525 young students aged 8-13 daily; without this they would not eat during school hours.

We would like to add more children to this food program, extend it to cover school vacations and add daily nutrient and fresh vegetables to their diet. It is a long and hard road for these students. Please help us by giving to our collection at the Masses on 18-19 MAR 2017. Contributions may also be left at the parish office. Because the funding for this program has been raised by young people for the benefit of young people, every cent is guaranteed to go directly to feeding those students.

Thank you for supporting us in being a Voice for Others.

ALEXANDER AND LUKE EDWARD

PERSONAL PLANNING SEMINARS

The Office of Development announces its Spring series of personal planning seminars. Topics at these seminars include end-of-life bioethical decisions, funeral and burial planning, and estate planning. When it comes to these topics, many people do not know where to begin. Because of this, a great number of people die without having had the opportunity to make funeral and estate plans. And when it comes to making good ethical decisions about medical care, many people just don't know where to receive good advice. All parishioners are welcome to attend any workshop. The workshops are free, but please register to attend. For reservations or information, contact Fr. Anthony Giampietro at 415/614-5580 or development@sfarch.org.

The workshops will be held:

GESTURES AND POSTURES OF THE CONGREGATION

The vocabulary of ritual gestures Catholics make during worship is quite clearly endangered — as has happened with other unwritten languages. As there are relatively few explicit rules (and even these are often not followed), little uniformity of practice, and considerable confusion, here is a sort of “dictionary” of (many of the most important) ritual gestures, their meaning and grammar, in order to maintain our historic language of ritual worship:

- Make the Sign of the Cross with holy water (a sign of baptism) upon entering the church.
- Genuflect toward the tabernacle containing the Blessed Sacrament and the Altar of Sacrifice before entering the pew
- Stand for the entrance procession, and bow when the crucifix, a visible sign of Christ’s sacrifice, passes you in the procession.
- Strike your breast at the “mea culpa” (“through my fault”) in the Confiteor.
- Bow your head when you say “Lord/(Christ), have mercy” during the Kyrie.
- Throughout the Mass, bow your head at every mention of the name of Jesus and every time the Doxology (“Gloria be”) is spoken or sung; also when asking the Lord to receive our prayer.
- During the Gloria, bow your head at the name of Jesus.
- When the priest announces the Gospel, trace a cross with the thumb on head, lips and heart. This gesture is a form of prayer for the presence of the Word of God in one’s mind, upon one’s lips, and in one’s heart.
- During the Creed, stand, bow your head at the name of Jesus, and bow during the Incarnatus (“by the Holy Spirit ... and became man”); on the Solemnities of Christmas and the Annunciation, all genuflect at this moment.
- At the moment of Consecration of each element, bow your head and say silently “My Lord and my God”, acknowledging the Presence of Christ on the altar.
- Reverently fold your hands and bow your head as you pray the Our Father (not holding hands with others or with arms outstretched). Do not elevate arms at the words “For the kingdom...”
- In reciting (or singing) the Agnus Dei, strike the breast at the words “Have mercy on us”.
- Bow your head and strike your breast as you say “Lord, I am not worthy...”.
- If there is a Rite of Sprinkling (Asperges), make the Sign of the Cross when the priest sprinkles water from the aspergillum in your direction.
- Make the Sign of the Cross at the conclusion of the Creed at the words “I believe in the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.”
- For the reception of Communion, leave your pew (without genuflecting) and walk reverently toward the altar with hands folded in prayer.
- Make a gesture of reverence as you approach the priest in procession to receive Communion.
- If you also receive from the chalice, make the same gesture of reverence when you approach the minister to receive.
- Make the Sign of the Cross after you have received Communion.

- Kneel in prayer when you return to your pew after Communion, until the priest sits down or says “Let us pray” (GIRM 160 American adaptation says “stand, sit or kneel”)
- Make the Sign of the Cross at the final blessing, when the priest invokes the Trinity.
- Remain standing until all ministers have processed out (if there is a recessional, bow in reverence to the crucifix as it passes by).
- If there is a recessional hymn, remain standing in your pew until it is over; if there is no hymn, remain in your pew until all the ministers have exited the main body of the church.
- Genuflect reverently toward the Blessed Sacrament and Altar of Sacrifice as you leave your pew; exit the church in silence.
- Make the Sign of the Cross with holy water as you leave the church, a reminder of your baptismal obligation to carry Christ’s Gospel into the world.
