Inspired by this confidence, we fly unto you, O Virgin of virgins, our mother; to you we come, before you we stand, sinful and sorrowful.

O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not our petitions, but in your infinite mercy, hear and answer us.

SAINTS AND OBSERVANCES

SOLEMNITY, FEAST, MEMORIAL • OPTIONAL MEMORIAL • OTHER

22 MAY (Monday): SAINT RITA OF CASCIA, Religious (1381-1457)

Like Elizabeth Ann Seton, Rita of Cascia was a wife, mother, widow and member of a religious community. Over the years, her austerity, prayerfulness and charity became legendary. When she developed wounds on her forehead, people quickly associated them with the wounds from Christ's crown of thorns. She meditated frequently on Christ's passion. Her care for the sick nuns was especially loving. She also counseled lay people who came to her monastery.

24 MAY (Wednesday): DEDICATION OF THE BASILICA OF SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI, (1253)

Because of the remarkable witness that St. Francis has made to the world, a magnificent church was built in his honor. In 1253 on the 25th of May Pope Innocent IV solemnly consecrated the Church. Seven years later to the day, the remains of Saint Francis were taken from the chapel of Saint George and placed in the new church.

25 MAY (Thursday): SAINT BEDE THE VENERABLE (672-735)

Considered the most learned man of his day, Bede was born around the time England was finally Christianized. His writings started the idea of dating our era from the birth of Christ, and our knowledge of the history of England before the 8th century is mainly the result of Bede's writings. He is a Doctor of the Church.

POPE GREGORY VII (1020-1073) SAINT MARY MAGDALENE DE'PAZZI (1566-1607)

26 MAY (Friday): SAINT PHILIP NERI, Priest (1515-1595)

While visiting a Dominican chapel in San Germano, Philip received word in a vision that he had an apostolate in Rome, so he cut himself off from his family and went there. During the Easter season of 1544, while praying in the catacomb of San Sebastiano, he received a vision of a globe of fire that entered his chest, and he experienced an ecstasy that physically enlarged his heart. He would hear confessions by the hour, and could tell penitents their sins before they confessed them. He founded both the Confraternity of the Most Holy Trinity and the Congregation of the Oratory.

DEATHS

MISSING

On Saturday, 30 APR 2017 at 01:00 PM a “lasso” was missing from the vestibule of the church. It was put there in preparation for the afternoon wedding when it was to be used. The “lasso” is part of a tradition that is used in many weddings here. This particular “lasso” is a family heirloom. If found please return it to the parish office as soon as possible. The family would appreciate it very much.

THE HOLY FATHER'S PRAYER INTENTIONS

Each month His Holiness asks for prayer intentions. For May 2017, the Holy Father's prayer intentions are:

Intention: Christians in Africa

That Christians in Africa, in imitation of the Merciful Jesus, may give prophetic witness to reconciliation, justice, and peace.

SAINTS FRANCISCO AND JACINTA MARTO

FATIMA, Portugal — On Saturday, Pope Francis told those gathered at Fatima, in particular the sick and suffering, to follow the example of the newly canonized Sts. Francisco and Jacinta, offering their lives — both the joy and suffering — as a gift for God.

“Today the Virgin Mary asks all of us the same question that, 100 years ago, she asked the shepherd children: ‘Do you want to offer yourselves to God?’ Their answer — ‘Yes, we do!’ — makes us able to understand and imitate their lives.”

“They lived life, with its share of joy and suffering, as an offering to the Lord. I invite those of you who are sick to live your lives as a gift. Like the shepherd children, tell Our Lady that you want to offer yourselves to God with all your heart,” Pope Francis said 13 May 2017.

The Pope's words were said during a special greeting to the sick during Eucharistic adoration immediately following the canonization Mass of Sts. Francisco and Jacinta Marto at the Sanctuary of Our Lady of Fatima in Portugal.

Francis presided over the Mass with around 500,000 pilgrims during his two-day pilgrimage 12-13 May 2017 for the 100th anniversary of her appearance to the two shepherd children along with their cousin, Lucia.

Speaking to all of the sick and suffering present, he said they should not think of themselves just as recipients of charitable solidarity, but know that they are full participants in the Church's life and mission.

“Your silent presence, which is more eloquent than a flood of words, your prayers, the daily offering of your sufferings in union with those of Jesus crucified for the salvation of the world, the patient and even joyful acceptance of your condition — all these are a spiritual resource, an asset to every Christian community,” he said.

“Do not be ashamed of being a precious treasure of the Church.”

FORMS OF ADDRESS FOR THE CLERGY (from an article by Fr. William Saunders on catholiceducation.org)

Have you ever wondered how to properly address a bishop? A cardinal? The pope? A proper etiquette does exist for how we address our Church leaders. As a point of courtesy, all Catholics should be familiar with these forms of address. Even though we may live in an increasingly informal world, such good formalities help to make us respectful of proper authority.

So let's start at the top — the Pope. A person would greet Pope Francis as “Your Holiness,” “Most Holy Father,” or “Holy Father.”

Next in the hierarchy comes the Cardinal. A person would greet a Cardinal by saying, “Your Eminence” or “Your Lordship” (which is very British). Lately, some people will reverse the word order, saying, “Cardinal William Keeler” instead of “William Cardinal Keeler.” The formal word order originated in the time when last names were not common, but individuals were known by occupations or even places. For example, “John, the Smith” (or Blacksmith) eventually became “John Smith.” The same evolution occurred with Cardinals: What would have been “William, the Cardinal” would now be, with the use of family names, “William Cardinal Keeler.”

Another interesting diversion for us concerns a Patriarch. Patriarchs are Cardinals but have honorary precedence over a Cardinal. For example, the Patriarch of Jerusalem is Archbishop Michael Sabbah. A person would greet him, saying, “Your Beatitude.”

Both an Archbishop and a Bishop would be greeted as “Your Excellency” or “Your Grace” (again very British).

A Monsignor would be greeted as “Monsignor.”

Prior to the reforms of the Second Vatican Council, some Monsignori had the distinction of “Right Reverend Monsignor” or “Very Reverend Monsignor.” Such distinctions are no longer made among Monsignori except for certain members of the Papal Household and those who serve in special offices of the Vatican Curia.

Finally, we come to the Priest. He would be greeted simply as “Father,” which reflects his spiritual fatherhood to those entrusted to his care by virtue of the Sacrament of Holy Orders. Some “Fathers” are also formally addressed “Very Reverend” when they have a special duty.
